UNIVERSITY GLOSSARY
This online glossary will help you understand the French terms related to your studies.

STUDY PLAN
You have primary responsibility for the success of your research project. So it's important to make sure you have all the information you need, starting with the Guide to graduate studies (in French). In addition to walking you through your first steps at university, it also tells you how to approach each stage of your academic journey.

Open communication with your research supervisor is key to success. It's normal for your opinions to differ from time to time or for misunderstandings to occur, but it's important to be able to talk about them.

In the event of a dispute, or if you are having trouble communicating, notify your program director. If you have a complaint about supervision, you can contact the Graduate Studies and Student Success Service.

ACADEMIC YEAR
DIVIDED INTO THREE TERMS:
FALL | WINTER | SUMMER
See the university calendar for:

- Term start and end dates
- Holidays
- Course change and withdrawal deadlines

WORK-STUDY-FAMILY BALANCE
Engaging in a course of study requires balancing several areas of your life. It is helpful to follow some tips on work-study-family balance or to use a tool to assess your workload. As a student, a survival guide (in French only) provides you with winning strategies.
INRS also offers students a parental leave financial support program. See section 5.

DIGITAL LEARNING ENVIRONMENT (MOODLE)
Some faculty members provide access to content on the INRS Moodle digital learning environment. Available to all students in Moodle, the self-training module entitled Studying online at INRS (in French only) presents some tips on how to use this environment. In the case where teaching activities must be followed online, please note that a headset with a built-in microphone, a computer with a camera and the software required by your course, as well as a high-speed wired Internet connection are required.

E-LEARNING
Although the majority of learning activities are expected to be in-person in 2022-2023, here are a few words about online learning.

There are many persistent myths about online learning activities, and knowing about them can help you prepare for success. As a student, you are expected to practice a Netiquette to promote healthy and effective online interactions. You will need self-discipline in your studies and some tips can make it easier. Also, some recommendations can help you create a place that is favorable to learning.

ACCESS TO MOODLE
Your login information for Moodle is the same as for IDE.

As a security measure, we recommend you lock up your personal belongings when you leave your office, even for short periods of time, and never leave valuables out in the open.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

ÉcoActifs – The mission of the student sustainable development committee at the AFSB Research Centre is to raise awareness on campus about issues of eco-responsibility and eco-citizenship. The committee provides advice on limiting the environmental impact of events held at the Centre. It also offers services directly to staff members and students including:
- Battery recycling
- Composting
- Delivery of organic vegetables and meat from eco-responsible farms
- Community gardens

Each fall, INRS holds a competition for projects that promote the reduction of the ecological footprint. Up to $10,000/project.

EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

In each center, you will notice banners stating “À l’INRS, toutes les variables sont incluses”, which means: At INRS, all variables are included. They are a reminder of the importance that INRS places on offering an inclusive place for study and research to all members of its community.

Each year, INRS informs and raises awareness of its members on a new topic:

› 2021-2022 - Sexual and gender diversity
On this page you will find the podcast series Les voix multiples (in French), as well as other resources and courses of action for the inclusion of LGBTQ2+ people

› 2022-2023 - Ethnocultural diversity
Follow this new campaign all year round

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT EDI

• Need to discuss an inclusion issue? There are three options:
  - Locate a member of the network of allies in your centre
  - Write to edi@inrs.ca
  - Locate the stickers (see on the right) which reflect the desire for inclusion of the members of your centre
• Consult the toolkit (in French) for inclusive and equitable research practices
• Use the INRS inclusive writing guide (in French)
• Find free menstrual products in bathrooms

Consult the website for more information on INRS actions regarding EDI.

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS AND EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLAN

In the event of emergency, call 4444 for immediate assistance. If you call 911 (or 9-911) directly, make sure to call 4444 afterwards to notify them of the situation.

That way staff can quickly direct emergency respondents to the right place, but also send someone to assist you while you wait for the responders to arrive.

The Laval Campus has implemented an emergency response plan (ERP). A copy of this plan is available on http://www.campus-laval.com/ under the Emergency Response section.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT DURING PARENTAL LEAVE

In 2021, INRS became the first university in Quebec to offer a support program to its students during a parental leave. To benefit from this program, students must have been studying at INRS for one year and receive a scholarship from INRS. Students employed by INRS are also eligible. For all the details, consult the program webpage.

The Fonds de recherche du Québec and the federal granting councils also have parental leave measures. Consult them.

SUPPLEMENTAL TUITION FEE EXEMPTION SCHOLARSHIPS

Tuition fees are higher for students from outside Quebec. Visit the INRS website (in French) for more details. Supplemental tuition fees do not apply to students from France and French-speaking Belgium.

INRS offers exemption scholarships for these supplemental fees. Get in touch with your contact for student records.

SUPPORT FROM YOUR SUPERVISOR

If you do not have financial support or if your financial support has ended, talk to your supervisor. Funds may be available to support you.

Being part of a research team increases your opportunities for support.
HOUSING AND TRAVEL

FINDING HOUSING IN MONTREAL OR LAVAL

INRS does not offer student housing in Montreal or Laval. To find accommodation, we suggest that you learn a little about the different neighbourhoods of Montreal and on the city of Laval, in order to target those in which you wish to live. Consult the page on housing of the organization I choose Montreal for information and references on the subject.

Located in Laval, near the Rivière des Prairies and Highway 15, the AFSB Centre is easily accessible via public transportation.

The best way to determine the travel time between a specific apartment and the INRS is to use the Google Maps directions feature. You will see the line numbers to get to INRS and the time required.

For Montréal, see the Société de transport de Montréal (STM) website.

For Laval, visit the Société de transport de Laval (STL) website.

HOUSING: BASIC INFORMATION

If you read French, visit the Housing section on the Immigrant Quebec website for information on:

• Where to look
• Rental housing characteristics
• Leases (rental agreements)
• Your rights as a renter

Otherwise, see the English guides mentioned above.

GETTING AROUND

Here is some important basic information. More information is available on the INRS website in the Transports section (in French).

AFFORDABLE CARSHARING

See: Communauto

GETTING AROUND LAVAL

TAKING THE BUS IN LAVAL
To get reduced fares, first ask for the Student OPUS card:

• Consult the OPUS card website.
• Complete section 1 of the form and send it to: Anne Philippon, anne.philippon@inrs.ca

BY BIKE
Ville de Laval website: bike network (in French)

PARKING AND BIKE RACKS
Consult section 4.

GETTING AROUND MONTREAL

TAKING THE BUS IN MONTREAL
To get reduced fares, ask for the Student OPUS card. To obtain the stamp and signature on the form, you must contact:
Anne Philippon, anne.philippon@inrs.ca

BY BIKE
Ville de Montréal website: bike network
This section contains useful information for students who are new to Quebec. The Studying and living in Quebec page (in French) on the INRS website contains more information on the following topics:

- A future in Quebec
- Food
- Budget
- Housing
- Transportation
- Climate and clothing
- Money and banking
- Language
- Phone

We also invite you to download the Étudier au Québec guide (Studying in Quebec) from Immigrant Quebec website. It is the most complete guide, but only available in French. It’s worth translating it for your own use only, especially pages 73 to 77 for immigration procedures, and 78 to 101 to prepare your arrival. Use your favourite translation tool or ask your mentor to give you a hand.

BUDGET, BANKING SERVICES, AND CREDIT CARDS

When you arrive in Canada, you will need to open a Canadian bank account so that INRS can deposit your scholarship money.

The Immigrant Quebec website has some useful information in French:

- Banking accounts and credit cards (in French)

OTHER SERVICES

As a renter, you may also have utilities to pay for. Utility costs vary (in French).

HOME INSURANCE

It’s important to get home insurance. If there’s a theft, fire, or other loss, the insurance will cover:

- Your personal belongings
- Your liability for damage to the property or others’ belongings

Assurance Québec (in French)

http://www.assurance-qc.com/maison.html

DRINKING WATER

Drinking water is free in Quebec. You don’t need to buy water, contact a provider, or pay to use the service.

HEATING AND ELECTRICITY

Find out if there are any additional costs for heating and electricity before renting an apartment.

In Quebec, heating is generally electric. If a rental is listed as:

- Chauffé, the landlord pays for the heating
- Éclairé, the landlord pays for the electricity, not including heating

If the rental property does not include utilities, you will need to open a utility account.

There is only one electricity provider:

WORK
You can usually work in Canada with a study permit, but it depends on the conditions of your study permit and your registration status. The Études au Canada website (in French only) breaks down the conditions and situations under which you can work.

WORKING OFF CAMPUS
Most of the time, you can work off campus with your study permit, for a maximum of 20 hours per week. Make sure you respect the conditions for work.

The terms and conditions in effect may include more permissive rules for holidays and breaks scheduled on the school calendar. Please note, however, that these do not apply to the holidays you decide to take. This only applies in two situations at INRS:
• The short break between the end of a term and the start of the next one
• Professional program: during a term where no activities are offered

WORKING ON CAMPUS
The number of hours you can work on campus is unlimited. But you’ll need to ensure your work isn’t interfering with your studies. If necessary, talk to your supervisor to avoid any misunderstandings.

SOCIAL INSURANCE NUMBER (SIN)
You need a social insurance number to get a job. To get one, visit the Service Canada website. Note: your SIN is highly confidential. Only give it to:
• Your employer
• Your financial institution
• The Government of Canada
• Your educational institution

FRENCH, THE OFFICIAL LANGUAGE OF QUEBEC
French is the official language of Quebec, even if you can usually get by speaking English, especially in Montreal. However, your environment will be predominantly French-speaking.

FRENCH COURSES
You can – and we recommend you do – take French lessons. Each semester, French courses are available free of charge, regardless of your level. Before the beginning of the semester, you will receive an email about the courses and resources to practice your conversation.

SOME TIPS TO HELP YOU MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR STAY IN QUEBEC
• Talk to your mentor and build ties with your colleagues.
• Get involved in university life.
• Take an interest in Quebec culture and ask questions.
• Keep on playing sports and doing activities you enjoy.
• Do not isolate yourself.
• Actively maintain links with your family and friends back home.

IMMIGRATION
It is important that you:
• Always make sure your immigrant documents are valid
• Strictly adhere to the immigration rules and any special conditions that apply to you
• Renew your documents before the start of the term if they are due to expire before the term ends

WORRIED ABOUT SOMETHING TO DO WITH YOUR IMMIGRATION STATUS?
Your contact for student records can help. If there is a problem, a staff member at student services can help you or direct you to the appropriate resources. See Section 8 for a list of student services staff members and their contact information.
INCOME TAX

DO I HAVE TO FILE MY FEDERAL AND PROVINCIAL INCOME TAX RETURNS?

If you worked between January 1 and December 31 of the previous year, tax was probably deducted from your salary. As a student, you can probably recover part of these deductions since you are entitled to apply for tax credits.

If you have children, whether you have worked or not, you can also receive federal and provincial child allowances, provided you have been in Canada for 18 months as a temporary resident or have the status of protected person.

You must complete your tax returns to obtain tax credits and child allowances. To claim for your deductions, you must complete a tax report at the federal level (see the Government of Canada site) and one at the provincial level (see the Revenu Québec site).

You must also file your income tax returns if you must pay tax. Income tax returns should normally be filed by April 30.

IS MY SCHOLARSHIP TAXABLE AND WHAT CREDITS AM I ENTITLED TO?

At the provincial level, your INRS scholarship or any other scholarship is not taxable, but it must be entered in your income tax return. Consult this Revenu Québec page for more information on the credits you are entitled to as a student.

At the federal level, the INRS scholarship, and other scholarships must also be declared. You will be able to benefit from the scholarship exemption if you are enrolled in a master’s or doctoral program.

HOW DO I FILE MY TAX RETURNS OR FIND OUT IF I HAVE TO PAY TAXES?

There are different ways, and the best solution will depend on the complexity of your tax situation and the time you are willing to invest. A single student without children, benefiting only from a scholarship and an income as an employee will have a very simple declaration to make. It will be more complex for a divorced person, with investments, self-employed, with two children and assets abroad. In the latter case, it may be a good idea to contact an accounting office. You can consult the Protégez-vous article (in French) on the subject. There are also many announcements and advertisements all over the place during tax season, from February to April.

If your situation is simpler, there are inexpensive solutions:

- There are excellent government-certified tax software programs that allow you to file your tax returns at little or no cost. Make sure that the software also allows you to file the Quebec tax report.
- If, in addition to your scholarship, your income is limited and your tax situation is simple, you are eligible to use the services of a volunteer. The governments of Canada and Quebec support this service through various community organizations. Consult this page to find an organization near you that helps students.
- To make it easier, you can also hire a specialized firm to do the work for you. For a student with a relatively simple tax situation, it will often cost between $50 and $80. Again, see the Protégez-vous article (in French) on the subject.

Before filing your tax returns, note that you must have obtained your SIN. See the previous page on this subject.

TAX SLIPS SENT BY INRS

In February of each year, if you have received a scholarship or a salary from INRS during the previous year (January 1 to December 31), you will receive from INRS the RL-1 and T4A slips which will be used for your provincial and federal declarations.

You will also receive an RL-8 slip to declare your tuition fees and obtain the credits to which you may be entitled.

INCOME TAX WORKSHOPS

Every year, during the winter semester, INRS offers workshops or information sessions on income tax. Check your INRS email inbox and our communication channels.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALIZATION INSURANCE

You must have health and hospitalization insurance. See the Health insurance and access to care section.

ASSOCIATION ÉTUDIANTE EN SANTÉ BIOTECHNOLOGIE DE L’INRS (AESBI)

The Association étudiante en Santé Biotechnologie de l’INRS (AESBI), formerly the Association générale des étudiants de l’Institut Armand-Frappier, was founded in 1984. It represents all the students of the AFSB Centre. Its primary mission is to advocate for the interests of the Research Centre’s student community. When academic or institutional issues of interest to its members arise, AESBI coordinates conversations to determine a common position and then acts as intermediary with the university administration. The association also organizes social activities to bring students together. This mission is all the more important since the Research Centre is home to students from very diverse backgrounds, and good communication is paramount. AESBI also has an active green committee that supports environmental initiatives and helps raise awareness among the students and staff at the Research Centre.

To get in touch, send an email to aecete@inrs.ca

You can also join AESBI Facebook group, where we share the latest information on events, activities, meet-ups, announcements, representatives, and more. It’s a great place to share our experiences, concerns, laughs, and tips about life at AFSB. The group is managed by students, for students. Whether you’re starting classes soon or you just graduated, join us!

HEALTH INSURANCE AND ACCESS TO CARE

All international students must pay for the Desjardins insurance on their tuition bill, as health and hospitalization insurance is mandatory under immigration laws. Some people who are eligible for the Quebec public plan (RAMQ) may be exempted from the Desjardins insurance: as soon as they obtain it, they must send the proof of registration with RAMQ by email to the contact for student records (see section 2).

In addition to this invoice, there is a fee for the ASEQ, an optional complementary insurance plan managed by the INRS Student Federation. The amount depends on the component(s) you are entitled to subscribe for. You can opt out of this plan following the ASEQ deadlines (see the ASEQ section below).

(1) Only people from Belgium and metropolitan France are entitled to RAMQ prescription drugs insurance.
(2) During the first three months, the insurance of the province of origin applies.
(3) See the box on the coverage available for children and partners of international students.
RAMQ

Non-Canadians who are eligible for RAMQ have free access to it, but they must:

- Before their departure, consult the organization responsible in their country to see if they are covered by the agreement with the RAMQ and ask for the official attestation of affiliation to their country’s social security or health plan;

- After their arrival in Québec, register with the RAMQ as soon as possible.

Registration

If you apply soon enough after your arrival, coverage will be retroactive to the later of the CAQ start date or the date of arrival in Quebec (except for France, where it is one month before the term begins). It is not necessary to have a private insurance while the application is being processed. However, the cost of the Desjardins insurance will be included in your tuition bill until you provide a proof you joined RAMQ.

Minor children who are eligible for the RAMQ coverage will also be covered from their date of arrival if you contact RAMQ within 15 days of their arrival. To do this, you must call the RAMQ.

Claim

Before obtaining any health care, make sure it is covered. The table of covered care below gives a general overview, but it is advisable to check, in your case, which ones will really be covered by the RAMQ.

- For the RAMQ to be billed, the card must be presented at the hospital or health clinic. If you did not receive the card yet, you will be charged for the moment.

- It is also possible, for those who receive an invoice, to go to the establishment’s billing department when they receive the letter of eligibility, to have the bill cancelled.

DESGARDINS INSURANCE

Regardless of how long it takes you to register, Desjardins insurance takes effect on the date below, or on the date of your arrival in Quebec if it occurs after that date:

- August 15 for the fall semester
- December 15 for the winter semester
- April 15 for the summer semester

The Desjardins insurance premium, as you will see on your tuition invoice, is: $300 per semester

Registration

A few weeks after your registration at INRS, you will receive from the Registrar’s Office the insurance contract number and your personal certificate number, which you can use to obtain your Desjardins insurance payment card.

To register:

On the web: Go to Desjardins Group Insurance Member Zone and click on Access Online Services, then Register Now.

On mobile device: Download the Omni app from the App Store or Google Play, and then screen register.

Who to consult for more information?

It is your responsibility to read the booklet for your insurance policy. See how to access it online.

Claim

As soon as you have your Desjardins payment card, public health establishments (hospitals and CLSCs) will bill Desjardins directly. For private clinics, it is best to check how they work as it may differ.

The Q178 contract with the Desjardins Insurance covers cases that would normally be eligible for the RAMQ for a Quebec citizen. Elective (non-emergency) surgery, for example, is not covered by this group plan. If in doubt, it is advisable to contact Desjardins in advance to verify whether a given medical expense is eligible before taking any further steps. This preventive measure will avoid unpleasant surprises!

Do you have questions about your coverage?

Desjardins - Customer Service Centre: 1 800 463-7843

If you do not have the card or if the clinic you consulted does not bill Desjardins, you will have to pay the bill and claim from Desjardins yourself. However, since the fees can be significant in some cases, it is possible to make a payment agreement with most clinics or establishments.

How do I submit a claim?

Once you have registered (see above), consult the How to submit a claim section on the Desjardins website.
ASEQ

ASEQ is a supplementary insurance that is automatically added to your fall and winter tuition fees bill depending on which components you are eligible for. See the table What insurance applies to you and your family? at the beginning of this section. If you start in the summer, ASEQ insurance will only begin in the fall semester. The ASEQ fees for 2022-2023 are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Fall</th>
<th>Winter</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Healthcare</td>
<td>$68.50</td>
<td>$137.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dental</td>
<td>$64.45</td>
<td>$128.82</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You can make an annual opting out; in which case you will pay the premium again the following fall and can opt out again in September. You can also make a permanent opting out; in which case the insurance will no longer be added to your bill for the duration of your studies at INRS. In all cases, if you opt out, you must pay your tuition bill in full and you will receive a refund directly from ASEQ within a few weeks.

For any problems with your ASEQ fees or in activating your coverage, email sve@inrs.ca.

For questions about coverage and claims, contact ASEQ directly.

FEINRS

FEINRS (see Section 10) handles the group insurance plan with ASEQ. You may contact the member of the executive representing you with ASEQ.

Registration

To obtain the ASEQ code and confirm your coverage, go to this page, and enter your INRS student ID number (matricule) as found in your IDE profile by clicking on your name. Do not use the Ministry’s permanent code.

If you have any questions about your coverage or claims, see the information documents (in French) on the website and consult the "Contactez-nous" item at the bottom of the right-hand menu.

To register family members, see the box below.

Claim

Before seeking care under the ASEQ insurance plan, make sure you know what is covered (in French) under the plan you are joining. You will also find all the necessary information regarding the claim process (in French) on the ASEQ website.

ACCESS TO PHYSICAL HEALTH CARE

NON-URGENT HEALTH PROBLEMS AND MINOR EMERGENCIES

The health care system in Quebec is public, but there are also private clinics. Hospitals and emergency rooms are accessible to everyone, and care will generally be covered by your health and hospitalization insurance. However, some medical clinics are only accessible to people covered by the RAMQ.

For minor problems, you will find below some resources available to everyone. Access to emergency services is also universal.

MINOR HEALTH PROBLEMS

Info-Santé health line

You can get free advice from a nurse. You have a fever, itching, or prolonged symptoms and are wondering what to do and if you should see a doctor?

Call 8-1-1 / available 24/7

Pharmacies or Drugstores

Your pharmacist can advise you on appropriate medication to treat your minor health problems. Pharmacies also offer some vaccination or consultation services. Consult your pharmacy’s website for more information.

MAJOR EMERGENCIES

If you or someone you know needs urgent care, you can go to the emergency department of your nearest hospital. Emergency departments are open all year round, 24 hours a day. They are usually overcrowded so only use them if you really need to. Before going to the emergency room, if you can easily get there, choose the least busy place by consulting the real time occupancy rate on the following website (in French):  https://www.indexsante.ca/urgences/

- Doctors, ambulances, firefighters, police: 911 (in most regions of Quebec) / otherwise, dial 0.
- Quebec Poison Control Centre: 1 800 463-5060
- Info-crime Québec: 1 800 711-1800
- Crisis centres (in French): https://www.centredecrise.ca/

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY
The Intellectual Property Policy establishes the principles and rules that govern the relationship between members of the academic community and INRS in matters of intellectual property. In particular, the policy aims to establish the principles for the valuation of copyright and invention rights. See the Copyright Guide (in French) for more information.

OMBUDSMAN
As a member of the university community, you may bring any situation where you feel your rights have not been respected to the attention of the Ombudsman. See more information on the Ombudsman web page (in French). The Ombudsman acts independently.
LA SYNTHÈSE IS A POPULAR SCIENCE JOURNAL WHICH DEMOCRATIZES STUDENT RESEARCH CONDUCTED AT INRS, IN FIELDS GOING FROM BACTERIA TO CANCER, FROM HYDROLOGY TO SUSTAINABLE ENERGY SOURCES, AND THROUGH SOCIETAL ISSUES.

Students present their master’s and doctoral projects in laymen’s terms. The articles are illustrated with photos and short cartoons. They are published in French and English, and are aimed at both peers and the general public. The publication frequency is of three to four issues of La Synthèse per year.
